Date Despatched:

Please allow 7 days for the return of your cable. All cables are covered by our warranty for 10 years so most repair work is free of charge. If returning a faulty cable please return the pair and not just the single run. For any modifications or upgrades we will contact you for payment, please phone or email to get a quote before returning your cables. Please include a return address and daytime contact number. All items will be sent out using Royal Mail Recorded delivery or via DPD courier.
